General Provisions

O.1. This document contains one independent consent: to the processing of data in a request for a demonstration of the Platform. It is given through a separate action, independently of other consents and of the Consent to the Collection and Processing of Personal Data (D-6).

O.2. The checkbox is not preselected. Opening the document through the link does not change the checkbox. Refusal does not restrict access to Platform functionality for which the relevant processing is not required.

O.3. Consent is given by selecting the checkbox in the form before the request is submitted. Without the checkmark, the request is not submitted.

O.4. Consent is confirmed by submitting the request with the checkbox selected. The request reaches the Operator by email and contains the information entered by the visitor in the form and the date and time of its submission. The current version of this consent is published at the address stated in its heading.

O.5. Withdrawal of consent is sent to privacy@dalaway.kz. The time limits for action run from receipt of the request by the Operator. The procedure for ceasing processing and the grounds for retaining certain data are set out in clauses 7.4 and 17.7 of the Privacy Policy (D-5).

Content of the Consent

1. This consent is given by a website visitor when submitting the demonstration request form. No account is required, and the visitor is not asked to accept the Accession Agreement.

2. I, the person identified in the form being submitted, consent to the processing by SteppeGate LLP, BIN 260140019690, of the following data about me: surname and first name; email address; company name; role or position; telephone number, if I provide it; the content of the request; and technical information on submission of the form.

3. Purposes of processing: considering and responding to the request, organising and arranging a demonstration of the Platform.

4. Operations with the data: collection, recording, storage, updating, use, granting access to the Operator's employees organising the demonstration, blocking, de-identification and destruction, to the extent necessary for the stated purposes.

5. Cross-border transfer. For sending emails in connection with my request, I authorise the cross-border transfer of my email address and the information included in the email text to the Brevo service, provided by Sendinblue, a simplified joint-stock company, French Republic. Processing takes place on the provider's infrastructure in the following Member States of the European Union: the French Republic, the Federal Republic of Germany and the Kingdom of Belgium. My data is not transferred to other recipients or other countries under this consent.

6. This consent does not authorise public dissemination of my data.

7. Advertising. This consent does not authorise sending me advertising messages. Refusal of advertising does not affect consideration of the request.

8. Term. The consent remains valid until consideration of the request and the demonstration have been completed. Information evidencing the request and the consent received is retained within the retention period for requests established in section 13 of the Privacy Policy.

9. Withdrawal. Withdrawal, rectification and other requests are sent to privacy@dalaway.kz. Withdrawal of the data needed for communication may make responding to the request impossible.
